—THE—

TOUCHDOWN

Published by the Senior Class of

Council Grove High School
Council Grove, Kansas

FOREWORD

That this book may serve as a lasting record of the school year, 1925-1926 is the most sincere hope of the Senior Class of 1926.

DEDICATION

To the football team of 1925, who, when the prospects of a winning season were dull, and material was apparently scarce, became a winning team from the first game, due to their ability to not give up,
this annual is dedicated.

Jokes

NEIGHBOR—And what does Oliver play on the team?

MRS. EBERHART—I'm not sure but I think he's one of the drawbacks.

K. R. (Cheer Leader)—Now girls! Upon your toes and show you're Blue and Gold supporters.

MR. AXE—Why didn't you come to class today Harold? You missed my lecture on appendicitis.

HAROLD K.—Oh, I'm tired of these organ recitals.

BURTON H.—I dreamed last night that I proposed to the sweetest girl in the world.

MINNIE LEE—And what did I answer?

My sweet potato, do you carrot all for me? My heart beets for you. You are the apple of my eye. If we cantaloupe lettuce marry. We will be a happy pear.—Your Bean.

MRS. HANEY—Who was the straightest man of Bible time?

E. TORRENCE—Joseph, because the Pharaoh made a ruler out of him.

Keep that schoolgirl complexion—out of the rain.

Johnny pushed Tommy out of his flying machine. . . . and it made Tommy soar!

You've all heard of the absend-minded professor who poured catsup on his shoestrings and tied knots in his macaroni, but how about the fellow who twisted the baby's ear and then walked the floor with the phonograph.

Those who flunked out their examinations should remember that, after all a zero is nothing.

*The history classes puzzle me
I never could see why,
With so very many reigns,
They always are so dry.*

HELEN DEHOFF—Why is there so much electricity in my hair?

TED CLARY—Because it is attached to a dry cell.

*One day a Soph saw something green
And thought it was a Freshman lass
But as he drew up near to it
Behold it was a looking glass.*

Class History

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Long, long ago, about four years ago, the present senior class, at that time numbering 84, entered C. G. H. S. The exceptional thing about this class is the fact that as they entered the high school the faculty and upper classmen were astonished at their lack of greenness. One of the social functions of the year was the picnic which at least a part of the class are sure to remember. The football captain for the coming year was chosen out of this class.

The following year they were back again, no longer freshmen but wizened and worldly sophomores. During their sophomore year nothing new of great importance took place, probably due to the hard studying during this year of their career.

Another year saw them entering. This time as juniors. The latter part of the year they gave their play, "Seventeen", which undoubtedly had never been equalled by another class up to this time.

This year they entered with the expressions of veterans plainly showing on all their faces. It was their year to occupy the front seats in chapel and be kings of the school. With few exceptions they have done both.

In summing up it might be interesting to know that out of the 54 who will graduate this year the following people entered the first grade together in the city schools:

ARTHUR EBERHART—I sent a dollar to a firm for a cure for my horse that slobbers.

FRESH.—What did you get?

ARTHUR—A slip of paper on which was written: Teach him to spit.

"There's a pair of good slippers," said the careless one as he threw the banana peels down.

"Pop!" said the weasel as he watched the little boy touch a match to the firecracker.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

When, as Freshmen, we entered C. G. H. S. we felt as if a most cherished dream had come true. Naturally we were termed "Green Freshies," but that was part of the fun, even though we did have doubts about our being as green as some of the classes which preceded us. At our first class meeting we elected as our class officers: Kenneth Kinkle, President; Harold Kneeland, Vice President; Manuel Bedella, Secretary, and Erlene Jaillite, Treasurer. We chose red and white for our class colors. Miss Stenger and Mr. Turnbull were selected by our Superintendent to guide us through our first year of High School.

We entered the next year as Sophomores, no longer victims of cruel jokes, and had gained the wisdom of the ages. We had lost several of our illustrious group through various reasons. This year our Sponsors were Miss Dreese and Mr. Fesmire. For officers we elected Harold Kneeland, President; Max Elliot, Vice President; Jacquita Coe, Secretary, and Elizabeth Ellis, Treasurer. Our only social event in the year was a Hallowe'en party given us by our Sponsors.

TOP ROW: Snodgrass, K. Foresman, Rumsey, E. Brown, Morton, Titus, Ens-minger

MIDDLE ROW: M. Foresman, Bedella, Carr, Elliot, Peck, Keys, Tally

LOWER ROW: Barnett, McCullough, Heigele, Leeds, Wodke, Holzhey, Sly

Last September we entered again but this time to come as "upper-classmen." This year we have distinguished ourselves as athletes as well as scholars, by our number in the football and basket ball teams. We elected to serve us as officers, Walter Maelzer, President; Kenneth Kinkel, Vice President; Alice Fisher, Secretary, and Erlene Jaillite, Treasurer. Our Sponsors are Mr. Vincent and Miss Brown. As social events we have planned a picnic and then the Junior-Senior Banquet, which of course will be the biggest event in our High School Social Activities.

Minnie Lee, in physics class the other day wanted to know if the making of huge weighing machinery was large scale production.

MISS FRED—Harold, what happened in the year 1492?

HAROLD K.—Wasn't that the war of 1812?

"That ought to shock him," leered the warden, as he shot the switch on the electric chair.

Sophomore Class History

CLASS MOTTO—Work Wins Everything.

CLASS COLORS—Gold and Black.

CLASS FLOWERS—Red and white roses.

CLASS SPONSORS—Miss Fredenburg and Mr. Axe.

In September, 1924, the present Sophomore Class enrolled in C. G. H. S. eager to enter upon the joys and experiences of high school life.

The class began its career by electing Helen Johnston, President, and Clarence Simms, Vice President. An active part was taken in athletics and all the school activities.

The Freshman Reception was our first social affair and was followed by picnics and parties.

In September, 1925, the class became Sophomores and have spent a very pleasant year of co-operation and accomplishment. Again this class furnished its quota of members to the Glee Clubs, Basket Ball, Football, and Track Teams.

We all look forward to two more successful years in high school.

M. H.

JOHN E. HANEY—"Pop, where does ink come from?"

MR. HANEY—"From incubators, son. Now run on out with the boys."

HAROLD B.—Probably caused by the band in his hat.

"Drop me a line," remarked the second mate as he fell overboard.

"Do you know how to make a grapefruit?"

"No."

"Well, it is anyway."

"My word," said the author, as he coined a new addition to the English language.

SENIOR—Did you hear Rev. Williams' baccalaureate?

AURA R.—No, but all those foreign cars are dreadfully noisy.

Freshman Class History

(Unassociated Press)

COUNCIL GROVE, KAN., Sept. 7.—Seventy-five Freshmen entered the Council Grove High School today. Their upperclassmen called them "green" but that will wear off with a change of fashion. Several of the students strayed into the wrong classes but they were following Seniors. Worthy ambitions and lofty ideals lead them here.

(Unassociated Press)

COUNCIL GROVE, KAN., March 15.—A visit to the high school today shows a great improvement among the Freshmen. They look as intelligent as most of their upperclassmen. They were received cordially at the Freshman Reception and got well acquainted there. These students have made several appearances in chapel, all of which have been quite successful. The Junior-Senior Dramatic Club when staging a dialogue found it necessary to borrow one of the little Freshmen for a character. They also borrowed some of the musical talent which this class had to offer. The students have found the value of several X's and they have declined several nouns. A number of the Freshmen have been kind enough to serve on Study Period when the other students had other engagements. Thus they have gained a reputation with the members of the faculty.

Unquestionably the presence of the Freshman Class has added quality, tone and enlightenment to C. G. H. S.

WILLIS SNIDER (being shown through an insane asylum)—What's the matter with that poor fellow?

ATTENDANT—He thinks he's the whole menu, just because he's nuts.

MR. SON. (In Agriculture)—Helen, is there any connecting link between the vegetable and animal kingdoms?

HELEN DEHOFF—Yes, sir. Hash!

"What do you take me for?" said the man as he reached into his pocket to pay the taxi driver.

"This floor is terribly crowded," said the gasping man as he blew his handkerchief on somebody else's nose.

COACH E. R. SONNENBERG

CAPT. FLOYD BOSCH

The season opened with little prospects of a good team, as there were only five letter men left from last year's squad, to form a nucleus for the 1925 football team. The letter-men were Captain Bosch, Fletcher, Loy, Kinkel, and Kendle.

The football season was characterized by an unusual number of good, very evenly matched teams. All of the rival teams meeting with one or more defeats. Out of all the games played the annual clash with Marion proved to be the real thrill producer. The game ending seven to seven in favor of C. G.

Out of the eight games on the schedule Council Grove won six, lost one, and tied one. Considering that the team was, in the main, inexperienced, the season can be regarded as highly successful.

Much credit for the success of the team this year goes to Coaches Sonnenberg and Axe whose faithful work and coaching was an inspiration to every player. The spirit of fairness, good fellowship, and co-operation, prevailing among the players and coaches.

At the close of the season Kenneth Kinkel was unanimously elected to captain the team of 1926. There will be seven letter-men back and the prospects for a good team are very promising.

CAPT. FLOYD BOSCH

(Center) Captaining the team this year he proved himself to be an able leader. He was a tower of strength on defense and very seldom made a bad pass.

KENNETH KINKEL

(End) Captain-elect playing his second year of football at end. Kenneth was one of the best players in the state. Opponents very seldom tried to run around his end twice.

ERNEST FLETCHER

(Fullback) In the open field he was unexcelled. His sidestepping, pivoting, and shiftiness gained many yards for the team. A good passer, punter, and receiver.

DAVID LOY

(Quarterback) Hard working, heady, and willing, the men worked hard for him. He was a valuable passer. He could always be depended upon to run the team the best possible way.

RALPH CAYWOOD

(End) This was Ralph's first year of football and he proved himself to be a capable performer at a wing position. His specialty was pulling passes out of the air.

HAROLD KNEELAND

(Halfback) Playing his first year of football he proved himself to be a good, shifty ball-lugger. He made up in speed what he lacked in weight.

CHARLIE CLINE

(Guard) Charlie was one who took lots of punishment and dealt it out in the same way. He made good gains through the line and was a good interference man.

GORDON FAULCONER

(End) A good consistent player who could always be depended upon to get his man. He was fast in getting down on punts and was a good receiver of passes.

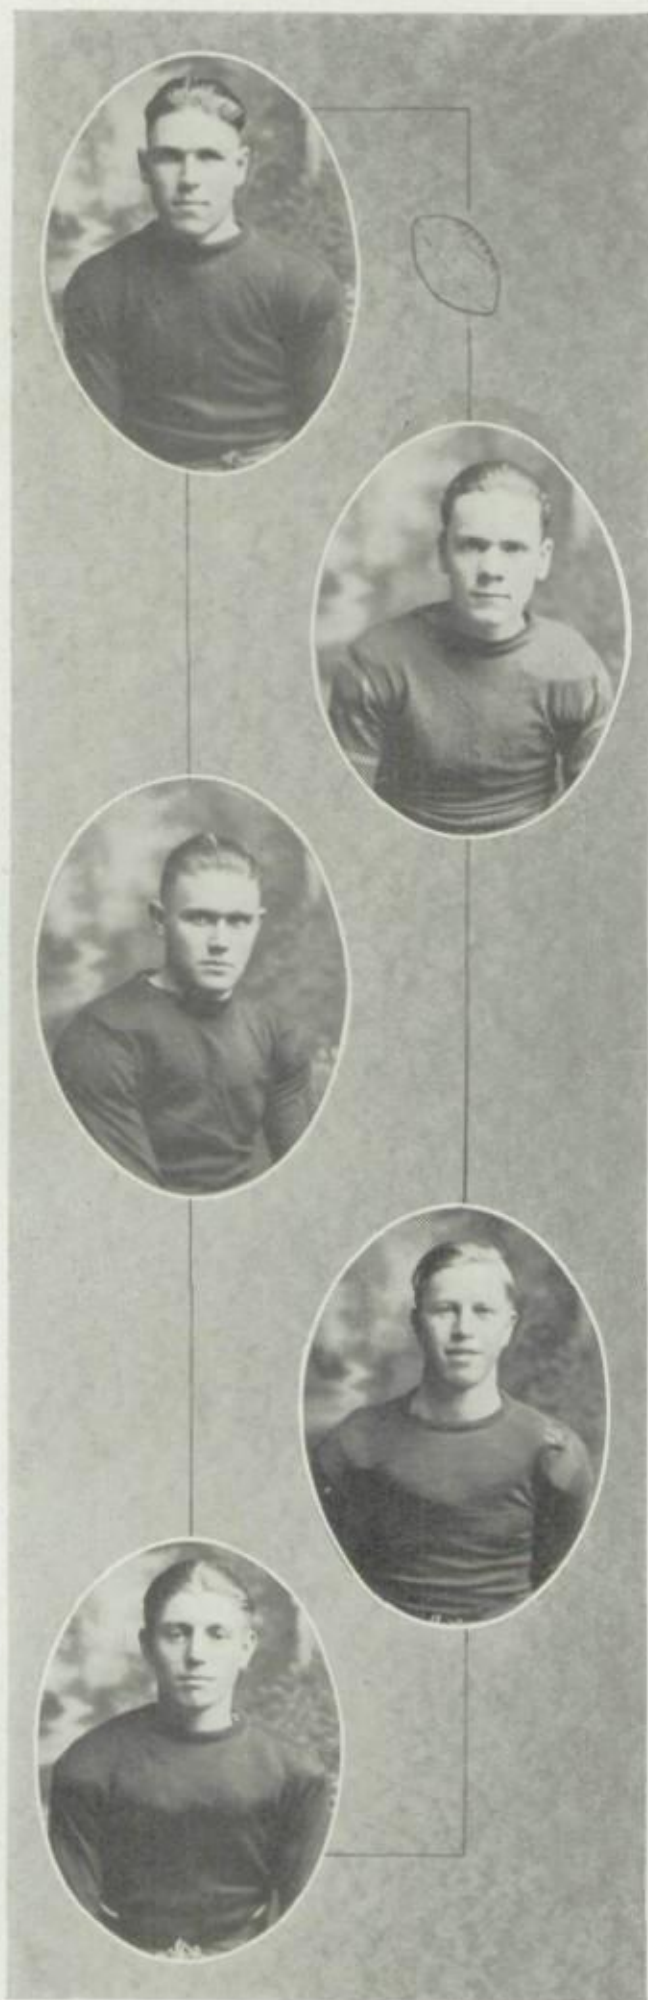

LESTER RUMSEY

(Guard) A fast-charging guard who will next year be shifted to center. He drives hard and plays every minute he is in the game.

ROBERT RHODES

(Halfback) A valuable utility man who was a good ball-lugger. He showed up well this year and will be one of the main ball-carriers next year.

NORVAN KENDLE

(Tackle) A tackle who possessed speed, strength, and aggressiveness. He was a good defensive player and opened big holes for the backs on offense.

OLIVER EBERHART

(Guard) Injuries kept him out part of the season but he made up for lost time when he got in the game. He was a good defensive player.

FLOYD SNODGRASS

(Guard) In his first year of competition he demonstrated that he had plenty of power and drive. His tackles were sure and he was dependable.

WILLIAM BUCHMAN

(Tackle) His speed and aggressiveness enabled him to break through the opponents' line and nail the ball-lugger for losses. A valuable player on both defense and offense.

DONALD JACKSON

(Tackle) By hard, consistent work he developed into one of the best linemen on the team. He has speed, aggressiveness, and was one of the hardest tacklers on the team.

With four letter men back Coach Axe was able to build a basketball team that won seven games and lost two of the hardest schedule in the history of Council Grove. The team's ability is shown by the fact that their opponent's average per game was only 14, while their average was 25.

Much credit for the success of the team this year goes to Coach Axe, whose hard and faithful work with the squad played a big part in their performances on the court.

RALPH CAYWOOD

(Forward) He is an accurate shot from all parts of the court and a good dribbler and passer. His ability was shown by his being selected as forward on the All-Tournament team.

ERNEST FLETCHER

(Forward) An excellent dribbler and floor man. His speed enabled him to break through any defense. He is a good passer and guards well.

DAVID LOY

(Guard) An excellent guard in the back court. He has a knack of getting the ball from the opponents' backboard and starting the offense quickly.

DONALD JACKSON

(Guard) A reliable guard who can dribble, pass, and shoot. He was a fighter always.

GORDON FAULCONER

(Center) He is an accurate goal-shooter at close range. His ability to fool the defense enabled him to get the close ones.

ALVAN LOWE

(Forward) A sophomore who developed real basketball ability. He is an able utility man who can play either forward or guard.

Girls' Basket Ball

FIRST ROW—Margaret Hutson, Helen DeHoff, Virginia Allen.
SECOND ROW—Bernice Williams, Jennie McCoullough, Miss Neosho Fredenberg, Ann Rhodes, Alice Fisher.

The Girls' Basket Ball Team of Council Grove for 1926, can receive but small honors for the season.

We are no longer allowed to compete with other town teams. However, not giving up all hope or practice, a game between the Alumni and School was staged. This ended in defeat to the School.

The School Team was built around the snappy and successful Junior Class Team, which had taken all honors at the Inter-Class games.

The orchestra this year has been the largest in the history of the Council Grove High School, being composed of twenty-four members, some of which were from the Grade Schools. The orchestra played for County Teachers' Meetings and plays and other events throughout the year. It has been considered a success in every way by all who had the opportunity to belong, and by those who have had the pleasure of hearing it. Much credit is due the Music Supervisor whose untiring efforts have helped to make the organization one of benefit and pleasure.

We are wondering if, in case Gabriel decided to blow his trumpet in this era, the majority of students would recognize it as such unless it would be equipped with a wah-wah mute.

"I shall now tickle the ivories," said the dude as he fingered a toothpick.

THE BELLE OF BARCELONA

With gay, lilting Spanish music, the tinkling of castenets, moonlight, bold toreadors, colorful Spanish students, dashing Americans and laughing Senoritas, the "Belle of Barcelona," was presented December 21, 1925, by members of Boys and Girls' Glee Clubs.

The cast was capable and voices well chosen for the characterizations. And it was one of the most successful operettas ever given in the Council Grove High School. It was highly appreciated by all who had the pleasure of attending.

The operetta was directed by Miss Helen Snow, Music Supervisor.

The proceeds will be used to send entrants to the State Contest in Emporia.

JUNIOR PLAY 1925

SEVENTEEN

"Seventeen" as presented by the Junior Class was undoubtedly the most successful play ever produced by Juniors in the Council Grove High School. Under the capable direction of Mrs. J. J. Haney, the well chosen cast impersonated the characters of the play to a wonderful degree of perfection. The audience was pleased with the life-like plot as was evident from the rounds of applause, and in brief everyone declared "Seventeen" a splendid production.

SENIOR PLAY 1926

PENROD

The Senior Play of 1926, "Penrod", was very successfully produced on the evening of March 30, and again on April 15. The well-chosen cast, under the able direction of Mrs. J. J. Haney, very well portrayed the life of "Boyville."

The general plot of the play is about the difficulties and pleasures of Penrod and Sam. How they detected the villainous schemes of Mr. Dade, how they accidentally shot Tim in the act of robbing the house and how at last they caused their parents' hearts to swell with pride. The manner in which Sam "beat around the bush" when questioned about using fire arms is very typical of boys of ten years of age.

Margaret, Penrod's sister, is forever being embarrassed by his appearance at the most inopportune moments. And Mrs. Schofield becomes very much worried when Penrod will not be "a little gentleman," however, she is more worried when she comes home and finds him missing.

The entire cast showed its ability in every respect.

THE FRESHMAN RECEPTION

The annual social event of the school, the Freshman Reception, was held on September 16, and was attended by a large majority of the Students. The entertainment consisted of games selected and arranged by several of the faculty members and were especially enjoyed by the Freshman. After this entertainment the Freshmen seemed better acquainted and more like "one of us."

DAD—Leo, if you will saw some wood I'll tell you what I will do.

LEO—What's that, Dad?

DAD—I'll let you have the saw dust to play circus with.

MISS FRED—Kenneth, what do you know about the age of Elizabeth (queen).

KENNETH K.—She was eighteen in March.

HELEN P.—Mr. Vincent is sick today.

MARION P.—Thasso? What's the complaint?

HELEN P.—No complaint; everybody satisfied.

MR. AXE—What is the difference between ammonia and pneumonia?

JUANITA S.—Search me.

MR. AXE—Why, ammonia comes in bottles and pneumonia comes in chests.

"These are my prize golf socks."

"How's that?"

"Hole in one."

COLLEGIATE—I love you so, I would lay down my life for you!"

FLAPPER—Yes, but would you pull up your socks?

RICHARD—Dad, what does a "better half" mean?

MR. SON.—Just what she says.

We will now sing the Ham and Egg song, from Hunger.

A well known undertaker in order to increase his business put up this sign: "Coffins at Half Price for the Next 24 Hours." During the night 30 Scotchmen committed suicide.

"S. O. S. your old man," said one college chap to another.

MR. VINCENT—Vida, I wish you wouldn't chew gum. Don't you know it's made out of horses' hoofs?

VIDA—Sure that's why I get a kick out of it.

"It's not the school," said Max to his father. "It's the principal of the thing."

"That's a new one on me," said the monkey as he scratched his back.

You Save We Pay

If you want to save $1,000, $2,000 or more—or less—you put in each month a small sum that will, with your accrued earnings, in a specified time, give you these amounts in one lump sum.

You are master of your own money. You own ALL of it. It is subject to your demands under the law of the state. You may ALWAYS get the entire 100 cents on every dollar, PLUS the accrued earnings.

Let your money be earning for you, and return you a certain sum of money. Thousands in resources are behind the statements we make, and our proven ability to make your money earn 6% for YOU.

Begin now—TODAY—to earn on your savings. You may arrange to save any amount of money you desire.

No formalities—no red tape—the time and amount of savings arranged to suit your convenience.
